COMPROMISE IN DAY CASE

Forfeits His Bond in Whiskey
Selling Case.

FEAR OF A FAULTY BOND

The Chief of a Supposed Band of Freight Car Robbers Twice Indicted.
The Slayer of J. C. Reed Unable to Secure Council.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, VA., Oct. 19.—The last of the noted cases against Druggist S. A. Day, who figured so prominently in the Campbell investigation, were disposed of by the court here today. While Mr. Day was under bond in the penalty of $500, he was convicted of selling whiskey unlawfully, and a motion has been pending for some time in the County Court, calling upon him to show cause why this bond had not been forfeited.

After being argued at some length, by counsel on both sides, the judge decided that the penalty of the bond had been forfeited, and ordered that judgment be entered against S. A. Day and his surety, T. C. Payne, for the amount of the bond.

To this verdict, Mr. Day, by his counsel immediately served notice of his intention to appeal his case to the Circuit Court, but a few minutes later, a compromise was proposed by Mr. T. C. Payne, counsel for Mr. Day, in which he offered $100, and dismissed the appeal.

This offer was readily accepted by the Commonwealth's attorney and his associate, Mr. Thomas Whitehead, the judge concurring, as they all seemed to be uneasy about the form of the bond, which Day and his security had given the justice of the peace, a blank form being used and the name of the county left out. This was regarded by many members of the bar as being a fatal omission.

CHIEF OF ROBBER BAND.
Judge J. M. White had a busy day in court. Two indictments were brought against W. B. Davis, colored, for breaking open and robbing railroad cars at Monroe, in this county.

A band of robbers have been operating at this place for some time, and it was said here today by a railroad man that the company has lost five or six thousand dollars worth of goods that have been stolen from their cars at this point within the past year. This negro that he had gotten out of a car.

It is thought that he has a number of accomplices, who have been with him in these various robberies that have been committed within the past year, whom the company hope to capture.

William Reid and George Wilson were jointly indicted for grand larceny, and their trial set for tomorrow.

NO COUNSEL FOR LEEBON.
Robert Leebon, the negro, who shot and killed J. C. Reed, near Lynchburg, on the 6th of this month, was indicted for murder, and his trial set for Wednesday of this week. This is regarded as a very aggravated case, and the prisoner as yet has not been able to engage counsel to defend him.

Congressman H. D. Flood was on the courthouse during the day greeting his constituents.

FARMVILLE TELEPHONES.
County Poor House Must Stop Raising Tobacco.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FARMVILLE, VA., Oct. 19.—The Council has granted the Southside Telephone Company permission to enter the town and establish an office. Work on the lines of the company in Prince Edward and Cumberland counties is being pushed, and before many weeks the system will have been completed.

The expenses of running the county poor house are to be cut, by reducing the team to two horses, the salary of the superintendent to $25 per annum, raising no more tobacco, but to raise such articles as will be consumed on the place, such as corn, oats, hay and vegetables.

A superintendent will be elected at the next meeting of the board.

The board has ordered that the $200 reported by the treasurer as available be equally divided between the five districts for road improvements.

THE JUNIORS GATHERING

Delegates Arriving for the State Council Meeting To-Day—Sueing for Killing of a Child—Coal to Galveston.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 19.—Mr. Jefferson Wallace, of Richmond, has accepted the invitation to deliver the memorial address at the annual Pythian memorial exercises to be held at Academy of Music Sunday afternoon, November 1st, by Warwick Lodge, No. 72, Knights of Pythias.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the exercises is preparing an elaborate programme, and it is expected that the Academy will be crowded. About 1,500 tickets will be issued and distributed by the members of the lodge. Washington Lodge, No. 108, will attend the meeting in a body.

JUNIORS ARE GATHERING.
The Virginia State Council, Junior Order of Union American Mechanics, will convene here tomorrow for its annual meeting. The meeting will last three days, and sessions will be held morning, afternoon and evening. Executive sessions will be held Thursday, and officers for the year will be elected. One of the social features of the meeting will be a big oyster roast at Buckroe Beach.

A number of the delegates arrived today and tonight, and Warwick Hotel has been made the headquarters of the visitors.

The case of Mrs. Emma J. Scott against the city of Newport News, suit for $10,000 damages, is set for trial in the Corporation Court tomorrow, and a number of witnesses for both sides were summoned today. The plaintiff in this case is the mother of the little four-year-old boy who was drowned in a hole in Huntington Avenue, between Forty-first and Forty-second Streets, several months ago. She claims that the negligence of the city authorities caused her boy to lose his life.

HIS EFFECTS SOLD.
Constable Mugler to-day sold at auction the office furniture, etc., of Blair P. Wilson, to satisfy a claim of $145 for rent. Wilson is a well known real estate man, and recently left for West Virginia rather suddenly.

The schooner Ada F. Brown, Captain Merry, cleared this morning for Galveston, Tex., with a cargo of 5,235 tons of coal. This was the first cargo of coal to be sent from this port for Galveston for several years.

The Republican City Committee will meet Wednesday night to discuss the senatorial campaign.

RAILROAD RESUMPTION

A Line that Will Open a Fine Country.
Cattle at Low Price.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PEARISBURG, VA., Oct. 19.—The people here are exercised over the proposed resumption of work on the extension of the New River, Holston and Western Railroad. This road was commenced about three years ago, and seven miles completed from Narrows up Wolf Creek, in the direction of Bland county, to the large lumber mills of the Younkers-Merriman Company. This company has reorganized under the name of the Merchants Company, Incorporated, which, along with other companies, own large tracts of timber lands in Bland, Smyth and Tazewell counties that will be developed by the extension of this road.

Besides, a very valuable agricultural country on Wolf Creek and upper Holston River, now isolated, will be brought into railroad connection.

The farmers of this county are somewhat discouraged over the cattle outlook. Stock cattle, the class principally grazed here, are selling very slowly, and at a price below what they were bought for by the farmers a year ago.

This means, perhaps, six dollars per head less than was expected for them, which, when applied to the chief money commodity of the county, is quite a loss. However, with a good fruit crop, potatoes, cabbage and other vegetables, for which they always have a good market near by, in the coal fields, the county is in a condition not to be complained of.

Charles City Election Judges.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLES CITY COURTHOUSE, VA., Oct. 19.—The Electoral Board of Charles City county met here today and the following members were elected: W. E. Gill, Edwin Marston, John E. Jones, Harrison Dittler, John R. Wadsworth, Jacobus Lewis Davis, Tyler District; B. C. Graves, Alex. Burns, Spencer Wallace, Chickahominy District.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. W. A. Flott, of this city, fell into a ditch near the city Saturday afternoon and in efforts to get out again was so exhausted that it died.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.
The Children's Home Society of Virginia met at the Y. M. C. A. in this city tonight. Rev. Mr. Mayhew, the superintendent, addressed the meeting on "The Methods and Objects of the Society."

There will be three attractions in Petersburg Friday evening. Dr. S. C. Miller, of Richmond College, will lecture on "Hobbes," which will be the second lecture of the course delivered under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Literary Club.

Paul Gilmore will appear at the Academy of Music in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," and the sale of seats thus far indicate that the Academy will be well filled on that evening.

The second number of the Dyer Star Course will be given at the Y. M. C. A. by the Dailey quartette.

The Methodist Sunday-school Association met at Elfrick Church yesterday afternoon. The total number of scholars registered in the city are 2,085; average attendance, 1,227; per cent. of attendance, 61.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.
Mrs. Daisy J. Turnbull entered suit in the Corporation Court of this city today to secure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from William E. Turnbull. The defendant is not now a resident of this State, and in, therefore, ordered to appear here within fifteen days to do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

BLOT ON THE FAIR
NAME OF RICHMOND

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 19.—Rev. George W. Wray, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, created something of a sensation last night by preaching a sermon on "Render Unto Caesar, the Things That Are Caesar's, and Unto God, the Things That Are God's," in which he roasted Richmond for the result of the recent Democratic legislative primary.

He said that it was a blot on the fair name of the capital city to allow "bar-room bums" to defeat Christian gentlemen.

It was reported recently that Mr. Wray will be sent to Clay Street Methodist Church, Richmond, next year.

A Little Leaf.

"A leaf may hide the largest star
From Love's uplifted eye;
A mote of prejudice out-bar
A world of Charity."

We owe an apology to the gifted young Virginian for this mercantile use of his lines; they are so perfect we want all to see them.

How many uses and variations of the leaf we have from the first drapery ever known down to the present witchery of the woods?

Speaking of DRAPERY suggests the complete condition of our CURTAIN STOCK. These sterling standards in Nottingham range from $1.00 to $5.00 the window. Arabian, Tambour, Renaissance and the many novelties we have so soon as they come; many prices and varied tints from $5.00 to $35.00 the pair. We can drape these properly for you.

NOTIONS—All the little adjuncts to the toilet and home we have right at the front door—Buttons, Pins, Jewelry, Hat-Pins, Hook-Ons, Dressmakers' Sundries—all at the right figures.

CORSETS—We show all the good, reliable makes that you have known. Competent young ladies have charge of the stock. All we ask is a chance to show you what we have.

UNDERWEAR for Ladies, in Cambric and Cotton of the best grades and generously cut, with best trimmings.

SKIRTS, CHEMISE, DRAWERS and NIGHT ROBES at any cost for the good things; we carry no other.

COATS, SUITS and SEPARATE SKIRTS are coming in daily, of the cut and fashion approved in New York. Alterations perfectly done in the house free of charge to you.

DRESS GOODS in the brilliant array of rough and smooth fancies. The very glints of autumn seem caught in the tints of many. They begin at 50c, and run up to $2.50.

Evening use brings us a complete range of those CRISPES at 12½c. All the colors, including black and white.

Just a glimpse at the SILK GAUZE at 19c. These are just what you want.

Mrs. Turnbull Enters Suit for Divorce.
The Children's Home Soc. for Meets at Y. M. C. A.—Three Attraction One Night.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 19.—A very muddled political situation exists in Surry county as a result of the refusal to accept certificates of election to Dr. Daniel, of Prince George, who is said to have received a majority of the votes polled for the Legislature from the district composed of Surry and Prince George. At the primary election candidates for county offices were also named. A dispute over the result followed, and the chairman refused to declare Dr. Daniel the nominee. Chairman Hobbs, of Prince George, declared Dr. Daniel the nominee, however, and to further complicate matters the Surry Committee a few days ago adopted a resolution declaring the late primary irregular and void. Thus there will be a free for all fight at the general election.

Mr. W. W. Baugh, who was a candidate at the primary for the legislative nominee, it is said, will be a candidate against Dr. Daniel at the general election.

Bernard Stewart, the eight-year-old son of Police Officer J. P. Stewart, while gathering grapes along the shore fell into Appomattox River just above Poole's mill and narrowly escaped drowning. The little fellow when he arose grabbed the trunk of a tree and pulled himself from the water.

The regular meeting of the Excelsior Y. W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow night at the home of the president, on Washington Street.

Miss Julia Budd has returned after a travel of several months in Europe. Mr. Alexander B. Moore, formerly of Norfolk, is quite ill at the home of Mr. W. L. Badger, in this city. Mr. Moore has been ill for several days with heart trouble. His physicians to-day consider his case more favorable.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. W. A. Flott, of this city, fell into a ditch near the city Saturday afternoon and in efforts to get out again was so exhausted that it died.

OCEAN BREAKS OVER BEACH

Surfmen Take to Life Boats to Save Themselves.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., October 19.—Many incidents connected with the recent great storm are still being told. The principal damage was on the ocean side. The surf broke entirely over several of the beaches, and the crews of Matomkin and Cedar Island life saving stations were compelled to desert their buildings. On their way to the mainland they saved the lives of several watchmen on the oyster grounds, taking them from their houses. Everything movable on the beaches was washed away, and but few of the oyster houses are left. Many of the planted oysters are sanded, and the loss to the planters will probably exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

CONFEDERATE REUNION

Barbecue and Speaking at Charles City Courthouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLES CITY C. H., A., Oct. 19.—The Harrison-Harwood Camp of Confederate Veterans, held their annual reunion and barbecue at Charles City Courthouse Friday. After a sumptuous free dinner served on the grounds, the camp was addressed by Congressman John Lamb, Judge James H. Christian and Mr. L. A. Waddill.

In the evening the Charles City Circle of King's Daughters gave an oyster supper and concert. The music for the entertainment was furnished by Polk Miller's well-known duet quartette.

The concert over an impromptu dance was gotten up by the young people.

JUDGE WHITE AFTER THE SOCIAL CLUB

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 17.—The first pronouncement from the bench against the social club evil in Virginia, which has been alleged to be nothing more than a clever evasion of the provisions of the drastic Mann liquor law, was made by Judge William N. Portlock, in the Norfolk County Court, to-day.

The judge charged the grand jury to be careful to ascertain if any of the clubs sold liquor to non-members, and were thus used by their promoters to pervert the law, and the penalty for violation of the regulations lawfully governing the operations of the clubs, by the sale of liquor to non-members, were pointed out as being forfeiture of license and punishment of the offender for selling liquor without a license.

Many clubs, the court held, now exist in localities where the court has not yet refused to grant licenses, on the ground that they were not proper localities for the traffic to be carried on. In this connection the language of the charge is interesting. It is "to permit the public at large, under guise of mere membership, to purchase liquors at such places, would amount to a dangerous and serious evasion of the law."

THE HOLDEN WILL BE LOST

Fine Schooner That Refused Assistance at First.

A VICTIM OF FIRE AT SEA

A Sailor that Stayed at His Post Until Hauled Out of the Hold Unconscious—Mr. Old Denies a Statement.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 19.—The tug Rescue, of the Merritt and Chapman Wrecking Company returned to this city this afternoon after a fruitless attempt to pull the schooner J. B. Holden off the beach, about twenty-four miles south of Currituck.

The Rescue left Norfolk Saturday night to assist the Holden, but reports that nothing can be done, and the vessel will, in all probability, become a total wreck. The Holden was laden with lumber from Norfolk to New York, and went ashore during the recent severe gale, the captain signalling at the time that he did not require any assistance.

Adolph Peterson, a victim of the fire aboard the German steamship Eric, died Sunday at St. Vincent's Hospital. He was sent into the hold when the fire was discovered at sea, and worked there while the ship raced for life into this port, remaining at his post until unconscious from the fumes. He had to be hauled on deck with ropes.

In respect to the memory of the late John Whitehead, chairman of the school board for many years, the public schools will be closed during the hours of his funeral to-morrow. The business organizations of the city have also appointed committees to attend the funeral. The city's present public school system is a monument to his untiring interest and activity.

DENIES CONTEST.
W. W. Old, Jr., defeated candidate for the Democratic legislative nomination, to-day denied that he would ask State Chairman Ellyson for a new primary on account of fraud at the one recently held here. It would do him no good, he declared, in view of the fact that the time has expired for candidates to file their notices for the general election.

The transportation companies centering here are to come to the aid of the Jamestown Exposition and assist the management to raise the million dollars necessary before January 1st. This is the most important move, from a financial standpoint, that has yet been made in connection with the exposition.

TO HELP JAMESTOWN.
It is probable that the general meeting of the railway and steam lines interested will be held at Old Point Comfort within a few days. They have already extended free transportation to representatives of the company traveling in the interest of stock subscriptions. It will be necessary to secure $10,000 a day subscriptions from now to January 1st if the guarantee fund is to be raised.

AN UNIQUE WILL.
The will of J. U. Adenbrook, admitted to probate to-day, is unique in that it makes it necessary for one daughter, Minnie Adenbrook, to divide her father's estate between herself and his other children as she may deem advisable. The estate is valued at $500.

AMALGAMATION.
The Portsmouth Business Men's Association and the Southern Produce Company are to be amalgamated, under the corporate name of "The Merchants and Farmers' Chamber of Commerce."

In this connection it is interesting to note the fact that the present truckers' organization, known as the Southern Produce Company, has been most active in forming the independent truckers' line of steamships between this port and New York.

The truckers organization, taking in as it does the producers of Norfolk county, Princess Anne and Nansemond counties to a large extent, is a most influential body, and the union of the commercial interests of the city of Portsmouth with those of the farmers is regarded as the logical sequence of present conditions.

DR. M'FADEN'S CALL

Hopes to Give His Congregation an Answer Next Sunday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 19.—During the morning services at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday the pastor, Rev. Dr. P. M. McFadden, made a few remarks concerning his recent call extended to him by the First Presbyterian Church in Gloucester, Va., owing to the illness and death of a prominent member of his congregation, he had been unable to go to Richmond to meet the congregation of the church there last week, and thought it hardly likely that he would be able to do so this week, as, if circumstances permitted, he expected to attend the meeting of synod at Abingdon.

He hoped, however, to be able to announce next Sunday to his congregation his determination to leave the matter and closed by gracefully acknowledging the reluctance which not only his own church had shown to his accepting the call, but which leading members of other churches had also expressed to him.
